

Australasian College
for Emergency Medicine

Teaching Excellence Award

Nomination form

The Council of Education invites nominations of eligible individuals for the 2024 Teaching Excellence Award.

Nominee

A Fellow of the Australasian College for Emergency Medicine (FACEM) who has given distinguished and extensive service in emergency medicine teaching and learning for the College ('the nominee').

Full name:

Date:

Signature:

Nominator

Nominations will be accepted from Fellows of the College, including retired Fellows, and trainees enrolled in the FACEM Training Program ('the nominator'). Nominees cannot self-nominate.

Full name:

Date:

Signature:

Membership no.

Teaching Excellence Award

Nomination form

Supporters

Nominations require the support of two FACEMs ('supporters').

Supporter 1

Full name:

Signature:

Date:

Supporter 2

Full name:

Signature:

Date:

Teaching Excellence Award

Nomination form

Service to emergency medicine teaching and learning for the College

Nominators should answer the following questions in as much detail as possible to demonstrate the nominee's service in multiple aspects of emergency medicine teaching and learning for the College over an extended period of time. Additional pages may be attached if required. Nominators are encouraged to gain further information in support of the nomination from other FACEMs and trainees within the relevant emergency department.

Over what length of time has the nominee served in emergency medicine teaching and learning?

Detail how the nominee has demonstrated a commitment to, and enthusiasm and passion for emergency medicine teaching and learning for ACEM trainees (inclusive of trainees in any ACEM training program).

Teaching Excellence Award

Nomination form

How has the nominee committed to further learning and development of skills in postgraduate medical education and training?

How has the nominee promoted and advocated for improvement of teaching and learning at ACEM training sites and/or EMET sites?

Teaching Excellence Award

Nomination form

What College entities or projects has the nominee been involved with? Focus particularly on those related to emergency medicine education, teaching and learning.

Provide details of involvement in the development of medical education initiatives focused on emergency medicine.

Teaching Excellence Award

Nomination form

Detail how the nominee has mentored ACEM trainees and/or other medical educators.

Detail how the nominee has gone above and beyond in contributing to emergency medicine teaching and learning, above what would be routinely expected of a FACEM/DEMT.

Teaching Excellence Award

Nomination form

Detail any other relevant information about the nominee's service to emergency medicine teaching and learning.

Submission

Nominations must be accompanied by a citation of not more than 300 words in support of the nominee and their service in emergency medicine teaching and learning for the College. This should be a summary of the information provided on the nomination form, and, if the nomination is successful, will inform the presentation of the award at the College Ceremony.

For further information about the award, please see AP377 Teaching Excellence Award Policy (available on the College website alongside this form).

Submit this nomination form, together with the 300-word citation, to COEcommittees@acem.org.au. Nominations must be received no later than 5:00pm AEST on Monday 27 May 2024.