

BLenheim*Senior Medical Officer (Emergency Medicine)

Do you enjoy loads of sunshine, water sports, world class wineries, biking and hiking?

If you are an Emergency Medicine Specialist looking for a change, then come join our team in Blenheim!

Wairau Hospital, located in Blenheim, New Zealand, is a new purpose built facility with 88 beds. Wairau ED sees 20,000 patients a year in its 15 bed unit. A High Dependency Unit and Acute Assessment Unit are co-located with the ED Department and the Radiology Department is right next door.

At Nelson Marlborough District Health Board we work with the people of our community to promote, encourage and enable their health, well-being and independence. We are looking for a FACEM, or a senior registrar completing their fellowship, to work with our team of experienced medical officers. Wairau Hospital has all the major specialties with sub-specialties visiting on a routine basis from Nelson and Christchurch.

Situated at the top of the South Island, Blenheim is well known for its temperate climate, award winning wineries, stunning scenery and outdoor pursuits, all available within minutes of the town centre. Whether you enjoy arts and crafts, cafe culture, boating, water skiing, scuba diving or exploring our national parks, the Marlborough region offers exceptional lifestyle opportunities which support work/life balance. Blenheim is a family friendly city with nationally recognised schools and plenty of sports events for the kids.

Nelson Marlborough District Health Board offers an attractive employment package including a competitive salary, leave, superannuation, paid indemnity insurance and generous paid CME expenses. We also provide a generous relocation package.

This is a permanent full-time position.
